

Label the ten vertices with digits 0 through 9, using each digit exactly once, so that the sums of labels around each triangle is the same T, and those around each pentagon is the same P.